

Whistling Gardens

'Enjoy the seasons!'

Enjoy Spring, Summer and Fall at the lovely Whistling Gardens, a beautiful 20 acre site located in Wilsonville, south of Brantford. It offers both formal and cottage gardens, babbling brooks and ponds, plus Canada's only all stone amphitheatre and largest computer-run fountain display choreographed to music! Whistling Gardens proved very popular with our customers when we went there for the first time in 2016. This year we are offering three seasonal departure dates for you:

Thursday June 8th: The spring gardens are home to the largest Peony collection in North America, offering over a thousand varieties in incredible displays, along with other spring blooms, including Iris and Magnolia.

Wednesday, July 19th: In summer, beautiful displays of many varieties of Lillies will be blooming, along with Blanket Flower, Red Hot Poker, Aruncus, Echinacea, and many Annuals and Perennials.

Thursday, September 21st: The start of Autumn shows off Annuals at their peak, along with Ornamental Grasses, Black Eyed Susan, Mums and Asters.

Prior to the Garden visits (2:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. approx.), enjoy a morning stop at Reid's Candy and Nut Shop, a landmark store in Cambridge since 1971 that offers homemade chocolate, candies and nuts, plus a Full Course Chicken Luncheon at The Olde School Restaurant, a long-established favourite made famous when they hosted The Queen for a Luncheon on one of her visits to Canada. Come with Time Of Your Life Tours and enjoy a lovely day away!
