

Winding Roads and Autumn Splendours

Join us today for our Autumn Colour tour through the Mulmur and Purple Hills in picturesque Dufferin County. Our first stop of the day will be at Downey's Farm Market in Caledon, with time to browse and shop for fresh produce and baked goods. An included Coffee and Muffin is also enjoyed here. After leaving Downey's we'll pick up a knowledgeable Guide who, along with showing us the charming villages of Cataract, Belfountain and Terra Cotta, will also take us through the Credit Badlands, a unique feature of the landscape in this picturesque region. We will also follow the Nottawasaga, Pine and Noisy Rivers, allowing you to enjoy the beautiful fall-coloured Maple Trees along the river valleys, and also view them from spectacular vantage points, perfect for picture taking. Enjoy a delicious lunch at Mrs. Mitchell's Restaurant in Violet Hill – built in 1889 as a schoolhouse, and now renovated with great care and respect for its heritage. Following lunch we'll visit the village of Creemore, where you will have an opportunity to visit Creemore Springs Brewery to sample their fine beer. Leaving here, the drive continues through the villages of Dunedin and Glen Huron before we turn south and head for home.
