10:45 a.m. Arrive at Meaford Hall Arts and Cultural Centre and enjoy a 'Welcome' Coffee/Tea served in the Terrace Room here.

11:00 a.m. Depart for a Historic Tour of Meaford and area with a Guide on board our coach.

12:30 p.m. Enjoy an elegant 'High Tea' Luncheon (Assorted Sandwiches, Scones with Jam and Cream, Assorted Tarts and Pastries) in the Terrace Room at Meaford Hall.

2:00 p.m. Take your seats for a matinee performance of 'Dean and Jerry: What Might Have Been.' The team of Derek Marshall and Nicholas Arnold present a fabulous concert of hits and comedy. With their own brand of humour, they pay tribute to the comedy team of 'Martin and Lewis', who dominated television, radio, and nightclub stages in the 1950s. You'll hear such wonderful hits as 'Everybody Loves Somebody,' 'That's Amoré,' 'You're Nobody Til Somebody Loves You,' 'Return to Me,' 'Memories are Made of This,' plus Jerry's hits 'You'll Never Walk Alone' and 'Rock-A-Bye Your Baby with a Dixie Melody.' The comedy routines and story-telling of these two terrific entertainers will take you through the real-life story that begs the question: what if they had never split?

4:00 p.m. Following the show we'll head for home.
